

Get inspired!

Visit the region's biggest interactive careers event

Target your child's future

The region's biggest hands-on careers and skills event, Skills West Midlands, is coming to the Ricoh Arena in Coventry on Wednesday 17 and Thursday 18 March, 9.30am - 3pm. If you've got a teenager making decisions about what they want to do in the future, come along and be inspired, motivated and thrilled with over 50 organisations providing interactive features from every major career sector imaginable.

Skills West Midlands is for 14 -19 year olds but everyone is welcome to attend. Making career decisions is easier when the whole family, friends, teachers and carers get involved, so everyone is welcome to visit Skills West Midlands.

This event is different from the usual careers fair and there will be interactive features, stunning stage shows, dazzling demonstrations and relevant guidance from organisations including A 4 E, Access to Music, Army, Arup, Careers at Sea, City College Birmingham, City College Coventry, Department for Children, Schools and Families, Heart of England Training, Henley College Coventry, HIT Training, JTL, Kaplan, Lifetracks, notgoingtouni, Platinum Training and Development, Projects Abroad, Protocol Skills, Royal Navy & Royal Marines, SR Media, TheSite.org, University of Southampton School of Health Sciences, VT Training, Warwickshire College, Young Enterprise West Midlands and Zenos IT Training.

Many more organisations will be there including top training providers and employers ready to help with advice and guidance on further and higher education, training, interviews, careers and much more.

You can find out more and book your place at www.skillswestmidlands.co.uk or just turn up on the day

17 & 18 March 2010 - Skills West Midlands, Ricoh Arena, Coventry

Make it a date and start looking forward to the future

Organised by prospects

www.prospects.co.uk